WHEREAS, proof and complaint on oath and in writing supported by affidavit has this day been made before me, G. Scott Green, Judge of the Criminal Court, Division III for Knox County, Knoxville, Tennessee, by Lee Strzelecki that affiant has reason to believe and does believe that Edward Browder, alias, Browder Metals, LLC, Bar Metals, LLC, and/or Carmack Motors LLC have/has in his/it's/their possession or under his/it's/their control certain evidence of a crime, to-wit:

Violations of T.C.A. § 62-9-109 (Scrap Metal Offenses), T.C.A. § 39-14-103 (Theft), and T.C.A. § 39-14-903 (Money Laundering).

The evidence to be searched for is as follows:

- 1. Catalytic converters not legally purchased as mandated by T.C.A. § 62-9-104 (Required Identification) and T.C.A. § 62-9-105 (Thumbprint, Records Retention, Due Diligence, and Payment Procedure);
- 2. Scrap metal transaction records as required by § T.C.A 62-9-105, including the records required for the twelve undercover sales detailed herein, or the lack thereof (evidencing a failure to comply with statute);

LEE STRZELECKI (DET) INTERVIEWING STEPHEN BRADLEY ON 3-9-21

816 SB: It's a really nice apartment, yeah. It's a really nice apartment. Did you see the apartment
817 area in Valgro?

818 DET: Yeah. We knew he lived in there, but we thought well, there's a little apartment. Little?
819 Holy shit.
